Qualifications For Membership

CAOG Mission Statement

The purpose of the Central Association of Obstetricians and Gynecologists is to promote optimal health care of women by providing high-quality continuing medical education and a forum for advancing and discussing scientific research in obstetrics, gynecology and women's health care. The CAOG is committed to addressing the concerns of a diverse group of community and academic obstetricians and gynecologists by fostering an atmosphere of collegiality, mutual respect, scientific inquiry and mentoring among its members.

Central Association Guidelines Pertaining to Membership:

Types of Members. The Association shall be composed of seven types of membership: (1) Active, (2) Provisional Active, (3) Non-Resident, (4) Life, (5) Emeritus, (6) Adjunct, and (7) Honorary. Membership in the Association shall be available without regard to race, color, creed, gender, sexual orientation or national origin.

Active Members.

(a) Physicians in good professional standing, residing in the twenty-nine "central states" of Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, Colorado, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Mexico, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, West Virginia, Wisconsin and Wyoming.

(b) Under special circumstances, and with the preapproval of the Board of Directors, an otherwise qualified physician not residing within the geographic confines of the Association may apply for active membership.

(c) Physicians (1.) Who are Board Certified in OB/GYN (Diplomats of the ABOG or its equivalent) or (2.) Who are Board Certified in their specialties or its equivalent and have made major scientific contributions, basic or clinical to the specialty of OB-GYN.

(d) An application for membership, listing such information as may be requested but including training received, official positions held, the scientific publications of the candidate, and endorsement by one (1) Active Member with a letter of recommendation, shall be submitted through the CAOG Office to the Membership Committee and then to the Board of Directors.

(e) Upon nomination by the Board of Directors, the candidates shall be voted upon at the next Annual Meeting. A 2/3 affirmative vote of all Members entitled to vote and present at the meeting shall constitute election as a Provisional Active Member.

(f) Each Provisional Active Member must attend one of the two Annual Meetings immediately following election in order to become a full Active Member. Failing attendance at the second Annual Meeting could automatically terminate the election process.
